Hi Brittany,

I had a chance to review the documents. It all looks good. Just a couple of questions...

1. Do you have the class certificates from the one day class that was taken? I'd like to place a copy of those in the folder with the rest of your facility information.
2. Do you have an organizational chart? Just a simple list of who will be working on demanufacturing appliances from the owner on down.
3. I noticed the surety bond is for $950. In rule, the financial assurance must be for at least the amount of the cost closure estimate, which you submitted as $18,700. Is there a reason it was only for the smaller amount?

Thanks,
Sue
